

BRENTWOOD ART CENTER

7/8/19

MONDAY

5-6 years

Instructor: Jackie Glosman

Today's Project: Kerri Ambrosino Flowers

Historical Context/Artistic Inspiration: Kerri Ambrosino, a self-taught artist, was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. Her art features bright, happy colors, expressing her view of the world. She loves painting flowers, animals, colorful trees, and the city, and has been painting since she was a child.

Technique: Drawing, collage, oil pastel

Summary: Students will discuss what it means to be a self-taught artist and describe the artist's work. Using simple shapes, students will learn how to draw a vase and collage into the vase with construction paper and oil pastels.

